Centering Moment: Our Daily Bread

Get centered for worship with this passage from “Our Daily Bread”

Prelude

Welcome

Centering Breath

↑ Call to Worship

ONE: Beloved of God, do you know that you are deeply, passionately, and eternally loved?

ALL: Yes! Yes! A thousand times Yes!

ONE: Beloved of God, do you know that you are welcome here, that you belong here, that there is space for you just as you are?

ALL: Such is the Good News of Jesus’ work and message!

ONE: So let’s come together, and love God and one another with all that we have and all that we are. Let us pray...

↑ Opening Prayer

God of wonder, God of time and space, you are present everywhere, at every moment. You are not confined to a temple, nor are you absent in it: you are so much bigger than our complex minds can comprehend. Yet your love is as familiar and comforting as a child’s bedtime blanket. Open our minds to your all consuming presence today. We long to hear your voice and speak to you in prayer, and we desire to draw near to you and tell you we love you. Amen.

↑ Opening Hymn Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty UMH 64

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord’s Prayer
Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy names. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us and let us not be led into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
